

Roseville Area Schools/Roseville Area Senior Program (RASP) Civil Rights Title VI Complaint Procedure

It is the policy of RASP to provide service to all persons without regard to race, color, national origin, disability, or age. The same requirements are applied to all, and there is no distinction in disability for or in the manner of providing services. All services are available without distinction to all program participants regardless of race, color, national origin, disability, or age. All persons and organizations having occasion either to refer persons for services or to recommend our services are advised to do so without regard to the person's race, color, national origin, disability, or age.

To file a complaint, you can call or write to the person designated below to coordinate with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (nondiscrimination against the disabled).
